ABOUT US

New Jersey Women in Law Enforcement, Inc. (NJWLE) is a professional organization of both women and men who are working together to strengthen public recognition of the unique contributions of women to the profession of law enforcement.

Our mission is to strengthen the law enforcement profession through the celebration of diversity and collaborative leadership.

New Jersey Women in Law Enforcement, Inc. is committed to non-discrimination on the basis of race, color, creed, sex, religion, sexual orientation and national origin.

Founded in 2004 by a group of dynamic female law enforcement executives representing federal, state and municipal agencies, NJWLE is proud to invite all in law enforcement who support the goals of this organization.

OUR GOALS

- ◆ Support the recruitment, retention and promotion of women in law enforcement to contribute to the growth of the agencies represented.
- ◆ Advocate for high quality training to all in the law enforcement community.
- ◆ Establish communication links among law enforcement members for the exchange of information and ideas.
- ◆ Conduct and sponsor training conferences and form a networking system.
- ◆ Sponsor community service projects to promote a positive relationship between law enforcement and the communities we serve.
- ◆ Affirmation of strict ethical standards of conduct and professionalism.

Excellence is an art won by training and habituation. We do not act rightly because we have virtue or excellence, but we rather have those because we have acted rightly. We are what we repeatedly do. Excellence, then, is not an act but a habit.
- Aristotle
